He was not just any person dying on a cross, but the sinless Son of God who was giving Himself as a substitutionary sacrifice for all who would call upon His name. Fri, 09 Nov 2018 08:48:00 GMT All Sufficient Sacrifice of Jesus Christ - sacrifice, and the knowledge of God rather than burnt-offerings (6:6). Obviously, the prophet is railing against sacrifice without mercy and knowledge of God, not against sacrifice itself. It is this theme that underlies Hosea's pro-nouncements on sacrifice: For Ephraim [Israel] has multiplied altars
